Offender Statistics

Statistics reflected on this page have been extracted from information entered by North Carolina Sheriff's Offices into the NC Sex Offender and Public Protection Registry database. The North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation serves as the collection and entry point for this information.

Caldwell County has 241 registered
offenders

Failure to Register

A person who is required to register is guilty of a Class F felony if they:

Fail to register

Failure to notify registering sheriff of change of address

Fail to return a verification of address

Forge to submit under false pretense the information or verification notices required

Any law enforcement officer who is aware of the violation shall arrest the person.

Notification by Email

You can sign up to receive an email notification when a sex offender reports moving to a North Carolina address within 1, 3, or 5 miles of your home. In fact, you can register multiple North Carolina addresses which will enable you to be alerted when an offender reports moving to a North Carolina address within 1, 3, or 5 miles of any of the locations you register. This enables citizens to sign up to receive email notification if an offender moves near their homes, children's daycare centers, grandparents homes, etc.
